

Test the spirits, whether they are of God

By this you know the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God,² and every spirit that does not confess ^{1a}that Jesus ^{1b}Christ has come in the flesh is not of God. And this is the spirit of the Antichrist, which you have heard was coming, and is now already in the world. (1.John 4:2-3)

The Spirit of God is known by confessing that Jesus Christ came IN FLESH.

The Bible teaches unequivocally that God begat a Son of Himself. According to Luke 1:35, Matthew 1:18 and Matthew 1:20, Jesus is called the Son of God because He is the begotten of God. Read these passages in an interlinear Bible with a Greek base text, as most Bible translations weaken or even deny these facts.

Matthew 1:18 "even before they came together, it was found that she held in her womb one of the Holy Spirit"

Matthew 1:20 "for he that is conceived in her of the Spirit is holy".

Luke 1:35 "for this reason the Holy One who is begotten will be called the Son of God".

The Word of God became flesh

In John 1:14 the bible teaches us: „And the word flesh became“

in John 1:1 it says: „In the beginning was the word, and the word was towards god, and god was the word.“ (see Greek base text – „pros ton Theon“ suggests an affinity)

According to 1 John 1:1, this Word of God became flesh could therefore be "seen", "looked at", even touched with hands. It is "the word of life", because God, who cannot lie, promised us humans eternal life before eternity (Titus 1:2)

And His Word became flesh in that God gave birth to a man of Himself.

The man Jesus Christ is this Word of God became flesh. "and His name is called, "The Word of God"" (Revelation 19:13).

Where do words come from?

Words come from the heart and go out of the mouth.

„A good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth good; and an evil man out of the evil ¹treasure of his heart brings forth evil. For out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks.“ (Luke 6:45)

In Isaiah 55 God speaks:
„So shall My word be that goes forth from My mouth; It shall not return to Me ¹void, But it shall accomplish what I please, And it shall prosper ²in the thing for which I sent it.“ (Isaiah 55:11)

Just as the Word proceeds from the mouth of God, Jesus Christ describes His origin in the Father.
„I came forth out of the Father“ (John 16:28)

Examine the Greek translation of the Old Testament (Septuagint LXX) and compare the Greek words with those of the basic text of the New Testament - "exerchomai ek" means "coming out of", rather even "coming out of the depth of the source".

Other similar statements about Jesus' origin in the Father are found, for example, in John 8:42; John 13:3; John 16:27.30.

The bread of life

The Word of God is given to us for life, by it man shall live:

"It is written, ¹Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds from the mouth of God.²" (Matthew 4:4)

Jesus Christ is the Bread of God, the Word of God become flesh, who came out of heaven to give life to the world.

„I am the living bread which came down from heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever; and the bread that I shall give is My flesh, which I shall give for the life of the world.“ (John 6:51)

Jesus Christ invites us to eat his flesh and drink his blood - take up the word of God.

Then Jesus said to them, ¹"Most assuredly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, you have no life in you."⁵⁴Whoever eats My flesh and drinks My blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day.⁵⁵For My flesh is food indeed, and My blood is ²drink indeed.⁵⁶He who eats My flesh and drinks My blood abides in Me, and I in him. (John 6:53-56)

in you,⁵⁴Whoever eats My flesh and drinks My blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day.⁵⁵For My flesh is food indeed, and My blood is ²drink indeed.⁵⁶He who eats My flesh and drinks My blood abides in Me, and I in him. (John 6:53-56)

The Word of God – the enemy of men

According to Ephesians 2:15-16 and Colossians 2:14-15, the Word of God is the enemy of men. But God has taken his word, the law, out of the way by nailing it to the cross.

Test the spirits, whether they are of God

By this you know the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God,² and every spirit that does not confess ^{1a}that Jesus ^{1b}Christ has come in the flesh is not of God. And this is the spirit of the Antichrist, which you have heard was coming, and is now already in the world. (1.John 4:2-3)

The Spirit of God is known by confessing that Jesus Christ came IN FLESH.

The Bible teaches unequivocally that God begat a Son of Himself. According to Luke 1:35, Matthew 1:18 and Matthew 1:20, Jesus is called the Son of God because He is the begotten of God. Read these passages in an interlinear Bible with a Greek base text, as most Bible translations weaken or even deny these facts.

Matthew 1:18 "even before they came together, it was found that she held in her womb one of the Holy Spirit"

Matthew 1:20 "for he that is conceived in her of the Spirit is holy".

Luke 1:35 "for this reason the Holy One who is begotten will be called the Son of God".

The Word of God became flesh

In John 1:14 the bible teaches us: „And the word flesh became“

in John 1:1 it says: „In the beginning was the word, and the word was towards god, and god was the word.“ (see Greek base text – „pros ton Theon“ suggests an affinity)

According to 1 John 1:1, this Word of God became flesh could therefore be "seen", "looked at", even touched with hands. It is "the word of life", because God, who cannot lie, promised us humans eternal life before eternity (Titus 1:2)

And His Word became flesh in that God gave birth to a man of Himself.

The man Jesus Christ is this Word of God became flesh. "and His name is called, "The Word of God"" (Revelation 19:13).

Where do words come from?

Words come from the heart and go out of the mouth.

„A good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth good; and an evil man out of the evil ¹treasure of his heart brings forth evil. For out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks.“ (Luke 6:45)

In Isaiah 55 God speaks:
„So shall My word be that goes forth from My mouth; It shall not return to Me ¹void, But it shall accomplish what I please, And it shall prosper ²in the thing for which I sent it.“ (Isaiah 55:11)

Just as the Word proceeds from the mouth of God, Jesus Christ describes His origin in the Father.
„I came forth out of the Father“ (John 16:28)

Examine the Greek translation of the Old Testament (Septuagint LXX) and compare the Greek words with those of the basic text of the New Testament - "exerchomai ek" means "coming out of", rather even "coming out of the depth of the source".

Other similar statements about Jesus' origin in the Father are found, for example, in John 8:42; John 13:3; John 16:27.30.

The bread of life

The Word of God is given to us for life, by it man shall live:

"It is written, ¹Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds from the mouth of God.²" (Matthew 4:4)

Jesus Christ is the Bread of God, the Word of God become flesh, who came out of heaven to give life to the world.

„I am the living bread which came down from heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever; and the bread that I shall give is My flesh, which I shall give for the life of the world.“ (John 6:51)

Jesus Christ invites us to eat his flesh and drink his blood - take up the word of God.

Then Jesus said to them, ¹"Most assuredly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, you have no life in you."⁵⁴Whoever eats My flesh and drinks My blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day.⁵⁵For My flesh is food indeed, and My blood is ²drink indeed.⁵⁶He who eats My flesh and drinks My blood abides in Me, and I in him. (John 6:53-56)

in you,⁵⁴Whoever eats My flesh and drinks My blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day.⁵⁵For My flesh is food indeed, and My blood is ²drink indeed.⁵⁶He who eats My flesh and drinks My blood abides in Me, and I in him. (John 6:53-56)

The Word of God – the enemy of men

According to Ephesians 2:15-16 and Colossians 2:14-15, the Word of God is the enemy of men. But God has taken his word, the law, out of the way by nailing it to the cross.

„having wiped out the handwriting of requirements that was against us, which was contrary to us. And He has taken it out of the way, having nailed it to the cross.“ (Colossians 2:14)

Thus „Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to everyone who believes.“ (Romans 10:4)

Unfortunately, these and many other biblical statements about Jesus Christ have been undermined and denied for centuries by manipulated translations and prevailing dogmas.

The antichristian spirit does not confess that Jesus Christ came IN FLESH

In the Athanasian Creed, the anti-Christian two-nature doctrine of the Council of Chalcedon (451 A.D.) is formulated.

(451 A.D.), on which the entire Roman church system is based: According to this, Jesus Christ was

“One, however, not by transforming the Godhead into flesh, but by receiving humanity into God.”

“God is he, begotten of the essence of the Father before the ages, and man is he, born of the essence of the mother in time.” (Source: Athanasian Creed - Wikipedia)

The representatives of the antichrist spirit refer to Hebrews 10:5-7 and want this passage to be understood as a heavenly dialogue between two persons of the Godhead. According to this, a "God the Son" God-being in heaven would have recognised from a scroll that God the Father had prepared a body for him. The Greek word for "prepared" is "katarizo" and does not describe an act of creation, but a providing or preparing. E.g. the fishing nets were prepared (Mark 1:19), or did God prepare praise from the mouths of children (Psalm 8:2).

Rather, Hebrews 10:5-7 describes the 30-odd year old Jesus (Luke 3:23) coming "into the world", that is, his public appearance in the human collective, the "kosmos". False prophets have also come "into the world", i.e. appeared publicly.

The Antichrist – a substitute Messiah, a substitute Christ

The biblical term "Antichrist" refers to a "instead of", a "substitute" Messiah.

The Roman church system espouses an antichrist theology - a trinity of persons of equal substance, an eternal Sonship and a Messiah made up of several components.

This confession denies that God brought forth from Himself a real person of blood and flesh. Jesus Christ came IN FLESH, that is, AS A MAN. Here a two-nature Messiah is described, consisting of a God-component, a spirit being "begotten before the ages" and a human nature from Mary, which was then assumed. So a spirit being begotten in heaven before all times descended from heaven and assumed a human nature from Mary. This Messiah came IN SPIRIT, that is, as a spirit, and always remained spirit. He did not come IN FLESH, that is, as a human being. The talk here then is of the "God-man", 100% God and 100% man, with no mixing of the two natures.

It is denied that God BECOME man by giving birth to a man from Himself.

The Bible calls us to examine everything and hold fast that which is good, even when these demonstrably false doctrines have been taught and believed for centuries. Leave this anti-Christian church system that proclaims another, an "Instead-of-Messiah". Detach yourself from this strong spirit of lies and ask God for forgiveness for having fallen for an anti-Christian spirit. Come out and study the Bible.

God will judge this anti-Christian church system and its followers:

„And I heard another voice from heaven saying, „Come out of her, my people, lest you share in her sins, and lest you receive of her plagues.“ (Revelation 18:4)

Trust your biblically formed scepticism

„For many deceivers have gone out into the world who do not confess Jesus Christ as coming in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an antichrist.“ (2.John 7)

„Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits, whether they are of God; because many false prophets have gone out into the world.“ (1.John 4:1)

Tip: Learn Greek and read the Bible in Greek, including the Old Testament, the Septuagint (LXX). You can do this if you have patience. Start with interlinear Bibles. You can find more explanations and useful study aids at www.heavenlyflesh.com.

Questions? Feel free to contact me. Andreas Dornbach - andihatpost@hotmail.de

„having wiped out the handwriting of requirements that was against us, which was contrary to us. And He has taken it out of the way, having nailed it to the cross.“ (Colossians 2:14)

Thus „Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to everyone who believes.“ (Romans 10:4)

Unfortunately, these and many other biblical statements about Jesus Christ have been undermined and denied for centuries by manipulated translations and prevailing dogmas.

The antichristian spirit does not confess that Jesus Christ came IN FLESH

In the Athanasian Creed, the anti-Christian two-nature doctrine of the Council of Chalcedon (451 A.D.) is formulated.

(451 A.D.), on which the entire Roman church system is based: According to this, Jesus Christ was

“One, however, not by transforming the Godhead into flesh, but by receiving humanity into God.”

“God is he, begotten of the essence of the Father before the ages, and man is he, born of the essence of the mother in time.” (Source: Athanasian Creed - Wikipedia)

The representatives of the antichrist spirit refer to Hebrews 10:5-7 and want this passage to be understood as a heavenly dialogue between two persons of the Godhead. According to this, a "God the Son" God-being in heaven would have recognised from a scroll that God the Father had prepared a body for him. The Greek word for "prepared" is "katarizo" and does not describe an act of creation, but a providing or preparing. E.g. the fishing nets were prepared (Mark 1:19), or did God prepare praise from the mouths of children (Psalm 8:2).

Rather, Hebrews 10:5-7 describes the 30-odd year old Jesus (Luke 3:23) coming "into the world", that is, his public appearance in the human collective, the "kosmos". False prophets have also come "into the world", i.e. appeared publicly.

The Antichrist – a substitute Messiah, a substitute Christ

The biblical term "Antichrist" refers to a "instead of", a "substitute" Messiah.

The Roman church system espouses an antichrist theology - a trinity of persons of equal substance, an eternal Sonship and a Messiah made up of several components.

This confession denies that God brought forth from Himself a real person of blood and flesh. Jesus Christ came IN FLESH, that is, AS A MAN. Here a two-nature Messiah is described, consisting of a God-component, a spirit being "begotten before the ages" and a human nature from Mary, which was then assumed. So a spirit being begotten in heaven before all times descended from heaven and assumed a human nature from Mary. This Messiah came IN SPIRIT, that is, as a spirit, and always remained spirit. He did not come IN FLESH, that is, as a human being. The talk here then is of the "God-man", 100% God and 100% man, with no mixing of the two natures.

It is denied that God BECOME man by giving birth to a man from Himself.

The Bible calls us to examine everything and hold fast that which is good, even when these demonstrably false doctrines have been taught and believed for centuries. Leave this anti-Christian church system that proclaims another, an "Instead-of-Messiah". Detach yourself from this strong spirit of lies and ask God for forgiveness for having fallen for an anti-Christian spirit. Come out and study the Bible.

God will judge this anti-Christian church system and its followers:

„And I heard another voice from heaven saying, „Come out of her, my people, lest you share in her sins, and lest you receive of her plagues.“ (Revelation 18:4)

Trust your biblically formed scepticism

„For many deceivers have gone out into the world who do not confess Jesus Christ as coming in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an antichrist.“ (2.John 7)

„Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits, whether they are of God; because many false prophets have gone out into the world.“ (1.John 4:1)

Tip: Learn Greek and read the Bible in Greek, including the Old Testament, the Septuagint (LXX). You can do this if you have patience. Start with interlinear Bibles. You can find more explanations and useful study aids at www.heavenlyflesh.com.

Questions? Feel free to contact me. Andreas Dornbach - andihatpost@hotmail.de